

The Southwell Masterclass 2016

Saturday 27 August, 10am

THE STATE CHAMBER (ARCHBISHOP'S PALACE), SOUTHWELL

The Southwell Masterclass presents a unique opportunity for local young musicians to be tutored by visiting professional musicians of national and international standing. Each participant will receive 30 minutes of coaching on a piece of their choice in front of a Festival audience.

We are looking for young musicians aged 19 and under from all parts of the East Midlands who have attained Grade 8 standard or above on their chosen instrument. Applications are welcome from string, woodwind and brass players, pianists, and singers.

Places are limited and may be decided by audition if over-subscribed.

The deadline for applications is Monday 30 May 2016.

To apply by email, complete the form on-screen and send as an attachment to: info@southwellmusicfestival.com

To apply by post, print the form out and send to: Southwell Music Festival
